

Community Partnership Application

Each year the Frist Center partners with organizations to provide art educational programs beyond the Frist Center walls. The education outreach programs reach a wide range of ages and diverse groups throughout Davidson County by collaborating with trusted community institutions. These institutions primarily serve the preschool, after-school youth, English as a Second Language and adult basic education learners; and families and senior citizens.

Criteria for participation

Please be sure to read carefully to determine how and if your organization will be able to sustain a partnership with us.

- 1) The partner organization should have a strong foundation of programs, staff, and financial support.
- 2) Partner organizations should be able to provide resources such as time, space, staff, participation, and promotion of the partnership when appropriate.
- 3) The focus of each partner's program should be suitable for the integration of Frist Center programming, whether there is already an established arts emphasis or not.
- 4) Organizations should be able to arrange transportation to the Frist Center.
